

UNC Chapel Hill Science Trivia

1. UNC has Nobel Prize winning scientists. Name these scientist(s) and describe their Nobel Prize winning scientific discoveries.
2. UNC has an undergraduate research magazine that focuses on the sciences. What is it called? Where can it be found? Who is the faculty advisor who manages this publication and what was the title of the cover article from the most recent issue?
3. In conjunction with the Liberian government, UNC researchers helped launch a website that tracks the Ebola outbreak. What is the name of the website (URL) and who are the international partners assisting in this massive data collection project?
4. What kind of research takes place at the Dohlman Lab?
5. What is the UNC Lineberger Center? Name one upcoming seminar at the Lineberger Center that interests you. And consider attending!
6. What is the name of the UNC doctoral student who was part of the Google team to win the computer vision challenge?
7. UNC recently received a $10.8 million grant from the US Department of Energy. What is the name of the center that received this grant and what will they be doing with the money?
8. The 2014-2015 academic year marks the 50th anniversary of which department? Who was its founder?
9. The Morehead Planetarium and Science Center opened in 1949, what famous astronauts studied space navigation at the center?
10. Kenan Labs opened in 1971. What style of architecture is this building?